Oh let me die in spring time, When flowers are bright and gay,

When life is like a sunbeam, When love is in its bloom, When woman's heart is softest,

Oh let me die in spring time, When morning drops a tear, To freshen blushing roses, To deck my lonely bier : When the pearly shield of winter, Has left the glassy wave,

When April shakes her tresses. Then lay me in the grave. Oh let me die in spring time, When broken hearts revive, When clad with perfumed garlands, The dying spirit strives To catch the passing breezes, Which float around its home;
